INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE'S EXCITING RACE ON

War in the Inter-City Industrial Baseball league remains on a fifty-fifty basis with the leaders, the Graver Tank Works and the General Chemical company, still intact.

Interest in the league is being revived. Attendance at the games is becoming larger and the boys feel like playing better ball than before.

RECALLS THE GOOD OLD DAYS

By H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, July 17.—It is a strange thing that the average fight fan of today is one of the greatest howlers the world ever saw when mention is made of a heavyweight tangle. The general impression, following sundry raw exhibitions, is that a heavyweight nowadays is a slice of cheese.

As a matter of fact, the record of Fred Fulton, the foremost contender for Jess Willard's championship, is a great deal better than the records of some of the most popular men who ever fought as heavyweights. The record of Jim Jeffries doesn't carry the awe-inspiring series of knockouts as does Fulton's. Robert Fitzsimmons' great record of fights he won by a knockout doesn't compare very well with Fulton's, and John L. Sullivan's record is not to be considered in the same breath with Fulton's. Fulton's record shows he has engaged in thirty-five bouts. Of these he has won twenty-five by a knockout. Once he was flattened and he has lost two bouts on fouls. Jeffries went to the squared circle for twenty-one encounters, and on seven occasions he was returned winner by a knockout.

Sullivan appeared in thirty-six battles, just one more than Fulton, but he was able to win only eight of them by knockouts. Fitzsimmons fought forty times, and won only twenty-three of them with a finishing punch. It may be argued that the men these champions were meeting were far better than the average heavyweight of today. However, it will be freely admitted that none of them was any better than Sam Langford, who Fulton has credit of a knockout over. And Fulton has barred none of them. He is ready to meet them all.

In view of these records it is a rather queer turn of affairs that makes fans refer to the good old days of Fitzsimmons, Sullivan and Jeffries when the talk turns to heavyweights.

TWO GET RELEASES

"Heinie" Morrow and "Chuck" Rhode, two of the most popular players on the Hammond ball club have been "canned."

With the season practically half over the two players who have helped Hammond keep its pace have been discharged in favor of two Chicago men. "Dead weight" is given as the excuse, said one fan today.

Rhode played well in the outfield and numbered among the leaders in the batting averages. Morrow was fast coming into his own in the pitching box.

It is said the fans look upon the move with disfavor.

PEERLESS WINS 11 STRAIGHT

The Peerless A. C. made it their eleventh consecutive victory Sunday when they defeated the Dollars & Garber A. C. at Indiana Harbor by the score of 7 to 5 in a ten-inning struggle. The fielding and batting of this game was little short of wonderful. Two double plays were credited to the Peerless men. The latter of these ended the game.

This victory makes the Peerless A. C. the undisputed champions of the Twin City in the 16 year old class. They have already defeated all comers of the two cities and will begin their invasion of Hammond next Sunday when they meet the Federals at East Chicago.

The Peerless A. C. would like to hear from any other 16 year old team in Lake county. Will travel. For games write to John Buckley, 4335 Olcott avenue, East Chicago, Ind.

JESS WINS VERDICT OVER JACK CURLEY

NEW YORK, July 17.—Application of Jack Curley for an injunction to restrain Jess Willard, heavyweight boxing champion, from appearing in connection with his wild west show, was denied in the Supreme court yesterday by Justice Peter A. Hendrick.

Curley contended a contract entered into by Willard and himself preceding the fight in Havana with Jack Johnson, at which Willard won the championship, restrained Willard from public appearances except under Curley's management until September next.

Justice Hendrick, in his decision, says that if the contract to promote a fight between Willard and Johnson and other static encounters is enforceable, on which he expresses no opinion, an injunction

FEW OF THE SEASON'S YOUNGSTERS LOOK SO GOOD AS THESE SPRY OLD VETERANS

Baseball managers nowadays are beginning to put more hope in the come-backs of veteran players than in the discovery of new young stars. The present season has seen little more amazing than the return to form of old Ivan Olson of the Brooklyn Dodgers and the gold-leaf hurling of Bob Groom, of the St. Louis Browns.

DYER HIGH GETS FAST VICTORY

(Special to THE TIMES.)

DYER, IND., July 17.—Dyer High added another victory to their string when they defeated the Royals of Chicago Heights in a fiercely contested game on their home grounds Sunday. It was the best kind of a game imaginable from the home fan's point of view and the grand finish all but set them crazy.

A most wonderful display of nerve on the part of Lawrence Hilbrich, the High school pitcher, pulled the game out of the fire. Opposing him were players that averaged at least four years older than the kids that were backing him. And that old jim that seems to be following the Dyer gang during the early innings of every game was surely on the job again. It popped up in the second, third and fourth innings. From the surety put Lawrence in a bad way. A hit, a stolen base, and an error gave the visitors a run in the second, two base on balls, an error on a puny infield pop up, two wild throws over third and a lucky hit netted them four runs in the third and some more wild and woolly baseball gave them another in the fourth, running their total up to six runs.

The Dyer team did manage to score a run in the fourth, however, they should have gotten two, but an over-enthusiastic player touched the runner just as he was crossing the plate with the second run and he was accordingly called out. These tough breaks were enough to try the nerves of a seasoned veteran but not our own Lawrence. From the fourth to the ninth he mowed down host tile batters with machine like regularity.

In both of the sixth and seventh innings he struck out the entire side. Only three of the Royal men reached first, two on passes and one on a lucky hit. And then in the eighth came the reward that was due his grand efforts. Lawrence led the rally with a screaming two-bagger to left, Kuhn singled scoring Lawrence, Kuhn stole. R. Hilbrich struck out. Kuhn advanced to third of a wild pitch, and scored on Galtner's single. Galtner reached second on a wild pitch and "Teuty" brought him in wild another safety. Behm was taken out of the box and Saegers appeared on the hill for the Royals. Friederich greeted him with a single, sending in the tiein run. Kammer struck out and M. Hill brich fied out.

In the ninth a Royal batter reaches first on a pass after one down but the next two batters struck out. Hartman led the Dyer half and grounded out Lawrence struck out, Kuhn singled and stole and R. Hilbrich brought home the winning marker with a terrific smash down the left field foul line. Score by innings:

Bases on balls—O. Hilbrich, 3; of Behm, 1; off Saegers, 2. Struck out—By Hilbrich, 20; by Behm, 7; by Saegers, 1.

The Dyer H. S. team would like to hear from the Robertdale A. C. for a game at Robertdale grounds next Sunday. For games write Theo. A. Kammer, Dyer, Ind.

M'VEY KNOCKS OUT JEFF CLARKE

PANAMA, July 17.—Sam McVey American Negro heavyweight pugilist Sunday knocked out Jeff Clarke of Philadelphia in the fifteenth round of a twenty round match.

To Arms—Your Country Calls.

The Worth of Your Dollar

The dollar is the unit of exchange in Indiana as in the nation.

When the rates for electricity in Indiana cities were fixed by law the governing bodies determined, after careful investigation, how much electricity you were entitled to receive for a dollar. They figured the cost of producing electricity, the cost of delivering it to you, the amount of money invested in the plants necessary to serve you and the rate at which these plants depreciated. They arrived at definite figures for each of these items and then they added a reasonable profit for your neighbor, the utility, and said that the utility should give you a certain amount of electricity for every dollar you paid the utility.

THAT ACTION FIXED BY LAW THE AMOUNT OF ELECTRICITY YOUR DOLLAR WAS WORTH.

The utility took your dollar and, acting as your agent, bought the coal and the labor and other things necessary to supply you with electricity. At that time your dollar would buy enough coal and labor and other necessary things to supply you with the amount of electricity the law said you should get for a dollar.

BUT THE STATE DID NOT FIX THE PRICES THE UTILITY SHOULD PAY FOR THINGS NECESSARY TO PRODUCE ELECTRICITY.

These prices increased steadily and the utility was bound by necessity to purchase at any price.

Now these prices have increased to such an extent that with your dollar the utility cannot buy enough to supply you with what the law says you should receive for your dollar.

YOUR DOLLAR IS NO LONGER WORTH THE AMOUNT OF ELECTRICITY THE LAW SAYS IT SHALL BUY.

The utility, your agent and servant, must add to each dollar you give it for electricity, in order to supply you.

DO YOU REGARD THIS AS FAIR TREATMENT OF A NEIGHBOR?
